The European School of Brussels IV is recruiting for a reserve of replacement

Supervisors

Nursery, Primary & Secondary Cycle

The European Schools are an intergovernmental organisation providing multilingual, multicultural and multinational education

The EEB4 is part of the European school system and provides education for children whose parents work for the European institutions. Our school community is made up of over 3000 pupils of 50 different nationalities and over 400 staff members from different countries. Pupils study in eight language sections: French, English, German, Italian, Dutch, Estonian, Bulgarian and Romanian. Located on a spacious campus in the north of Brussels, we offer innovative teaching programs that allow to achieve exceptional academic results. More information about European schools in general is available at www.eursc.eu.

Objectives of the European Schools
The words which express the essential objectives of the European Schools have been sealed in parchment in the foundations of all the schools:

'Brought up in contact with each other, freed from the prejudices that divide from an early age, introduced to the beauties and values of the various cultures, they will grow in awareness of their solidarity. While retaining their love and pride of their homeland, they will become Europeans in spirit, well prepared to complete and consolidate the work undertaken by their fathers for the advent of a united and prosperous Europe'. (Marcel Decombis, Director of the European School, Luxembourg between 1953 and 1960)

The ethics of supervision at the European School Brussels IV
Safety and well-being are the basic needs of all children. We want our pupils to grow and develop in a welcoming and friendly environment. We want our pupils to be happy to come to school every day and, when they go home, to be even happier. It's important that the school is a safe place so that children can come together without fear or worry. It is essential that they feel that we care about them.

Our pupils must learn to become responsible citizens. We must promote an atmosphere throughout the school where European values are present. Tolerance, valuing diversity, respect for others and the rules that govern our school life.

The supervisors' job is to ensure a safe, welcoming and friendly environment, under the coordination of the educational advisers, who are responsible for discipline and well-being at school.

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Supervisor at the European School Brussels IV
- The supervisors are responsible for ensuring that pupils respect the school's health and safety policy
