

Sanitary measures at school

-Contagious diseases/illnesses-

There are some contagious diseases/illnesses which need, when they occur, some specific measures to prevent them from spreading. It is imperative to report these illnesses to the school medical service/school doctor *). The school medical service/school doctor will instigate preventative measures:

Diphthéria **)
Bacterial Méningitis) Poliomyélite **)

) sanitary emergency: declaration at latest after 24 hours

Whooping Cough
Scabies
Infectious Gastroenteritis :« Salmonella typhi » and enteropathogenes germs
Hepatitis A
Impetigo
Infections caused by streptococci (beta-hemolytic group A)
Mumps
Pediculosis
Measles
German measles
Ringworm in the hair
Tuberculosis
Chicken pox and Herpes Zoster

Please contact us if your child is concerned:

Medical school service :
02-340.14.94
Mail : LIST-LAE-INFIRMARY@eursc.eu

Cordially,

Dr. Dominique DUPONT
School doctor

Eva PUTTKAMER, nurse
Sophie CARLY, nurse
Nadia LE GRAND

-Medical School service EEB IV-

*) « Arrêté du Gouvernement de la Communauté française relatif aux mesures de prévention des maladies transmissibles », décret du 20 décembre 2001 relatif à la Promotion de la Santé à l'École »